Commissioner Strahan seconded the motion. The motion passed by vote: Houseman (absent), Strahan (aye) and Strafuss (aye).

Commissioner Strafuss mentioned that the County was still holding two checks, #324292 & #324328, for legal review on the next Thursday.

Commissioner Strafuss announced that he would be hosting a follow-up town hall meeting the following night at 7 PM, in regards to the recent flooding. He stated that the Corp would be giving a presentation on how the White River operates, and that FEMA & SEMA would be on hand to answer questions. The County Commission encouraged anyone that had flood water damage, questions on the process or insurance questions to attend the meeting. They would also have an organizational flow chart to help answer any questions. It was requested that the County put two message boards in highly populated areas so people could register their flood damaged houses, and so that FEMA would have documentation of it.

The Commission announced that FEMA would be present at 1 PM, May 17, 2011 for Public Assistance Review.

Commissioner Strahan announced to the public that there were a large amount of roads on the chip and seal list due to the flooding damage. He stated that the Road and Bridge crew had been doing the largest amount of dig-outs as far as road repair. He said that this was one of the issues that he would be assessing and looking at.

Commissioner Strafuss moved to adjourn. Commissioner Strahan seconded the motion. The motion passed by vote: Houseman (absent), Strafuss (aye) and Strahan (aye).
